2. CREATING SEARCH BOUNDARIES

Using the “Buffer” allows you to search crime statistics within a specific geographic area.

This will provide insight to what types of crimes are occurring within your community.

The radius of your search can expand out as small as 500 feet and as large as five miles.

3. SELECTING A DATE RANGE:

There are three options:

1. Use the “Quick Date” drop down box with has a range beginning at 3 days and ends up to one year.

2. Use the “Date Range” tool and enter a specific Start Date and End Date.

3. Check the “View points using time slider” box. A time slider tool will appear to help you choose a date range.

The screenshot displays the LexisNexis Community Crime Map interface. On the left, a sidebar contains a 'Menu' section with options: Search Address, JUMP TO CITY, BUFFER, Date Range, Event, Offenders, Analytic Layers, Agency Layers, and About Community Crime Map. The 'Date Range' section is expanded, showing three options: 'QUICK DATE' (with a dropdown 'Select a pre-defined range...'), 'DATE RANGE' (with 'Start Date' and 'End Date' fields set to 03/20/2017 and 04/19/2017), and a checkbox labeled 'View points using time slider' which is checked. A third option, 'View points using time slider', is also shown as a separate tool at the bottom of the sidebar, featuring a time slider with the range '8/24/2015 - 9/17/2015'. The main map area shows a map of the United States with various states labeled. The top of the interface includes a header with 'Crime mapping, email reports and tips for the public', 'About Community Crime Map', 'Help', and 'About LexisNexis'. A navigation bar at the top includes 'Map', 'Data Grid', 'Analytics', and 'Metadata'. A 'Sign up for crime alerts' button and a 'Clear Filters' button are also visible.

4. SELECTING EVENTS

The “Event” tab allows you to select which report types you would like to see.

You can select all of the call types or narrow your search neighborhood specific call types such as residential burglaries.

5. GETTING RESULTS

For this particular search, I chose the following criteria:

- Address:
200 E Anderson St,
Stockton, CA
- Buffer: One Mile
- Date Range: 28 Days
- Event: Burglary-
Residential

Now its time to select:

Go to Address

... and review our search results.

The screenshot displays the LexisNexis Community Crime Map interface. The top navigation bar includes links for "Crime mapping, email reports and tips for the public", "About Community Crime Map", "Help", and "About LexisNexis". The main header features the LexisNexis logo and the title "Community Crime Map", with buttons for "Sign up for crime alerts" and "Clear Filters".

The left sidebar contains a "Menu" section with the following options:

- ADDRESS: A text input field containing "Anderson St, Stockton, CA 952" and a "Go to Address" button.
- JUMP TO CITY: A dropdown menu with the text "Start typing or click the arrow..." and a search icon.
- BUFFER: A section with a checked "On" checkbox, a "1 mile" dropdown, and a checked "Only display events within buffer" checkbox.
- Date Range: A section with a "QUICK DATE" dropdown, a "DATE RANGE" section with "Start Date" (03/20/2017) and "End Date" (04/19/2017) fields, and a "View points using time slider" checkbox.
- Event: A list of crime events with checkboxes: Homicide, Attempted Homicide, Death Investigation, Sexual Assault, Sexual Offense - Other, Robbery - Commercial, Robbery - Individual, Aggravated Assault, Assault - Other, Burglary - Commercial, and Burglary - Residential (which is checked).

The main area shows a map of the United States with state boundaries and names. A "Map" button and a "Satellite" button are located above the map. The map includes labels for major cities like San Francisco, Los Angeles, New York, and Chicago, as well as neighboring countries like Canada and Mexico. The bottom of the page contains copyright information: "Copyright © 2016 LexisNexis. All rights reserved. # 6. EXAMINING THE RESULTS

This search produced five occurrences based on our search criteria.

- The map displays multiple symbols representing where the calls have occurred geographically.
- You can click each symbol for more detail regarding each particular incident.
- The Black circle represents the 1 mile Buffer we selected.

8. LOCATING CRIME TRENDS

Click the Analytics layer to display the results of your search through a series of four graphs:

- Crime Class by percentage
- Crime type by day of the week
- Crime Class Timeline
- Day of the week by hour

This type of analytic data is similar to what Crime Analysts use to establish crime trends.

IN CLOSING

- Recognizing various Crime Trends can make criminal behavior predictable based on location, time of occurrence and other factors.
- Having current crime statistics readily available, along with possible suspect descriptions can ultimately lead to an arrest of a habitual offender.
- Being knowledgeable of up to date crime statistics will help you keep your community informed.
- Helping us keep a watchful eye on what is occurring in your neighborhood will help us serve you more effectively.
